This Week's Drash

Rabbi Eric

1 Now Adonai called to Moses and spoke to him out of the Tent of Meeting, saying: 2 "Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, and tell them: When anyone of you brings an offering to Adonai, you may present your offering of livestock, from the herd or from the flock.

This week, we begin reading the book of Leviticus, or Vayikra. Vayikra means "And He called." The book begins with an experience where Ad-nai calls to Moses from within the Tent of Meeting, also known as the Mishkan, or Tabernacle. In this case, we do not know where Moses was when Ad-nai called him, but we do know Moses was not in the Tabernacle at the time. The reason this is so important is that it lets us know that Ad-nai will speak to His people wherever they are. Yes, He does speak to us while we are gathered for worship in our synagogues, but He also speaks to us wherever we are and whatever we are doing. The question this week is are you listening for His voice every day and all day, or just on Shabbat?

A Recipe to Try with Your Parents: Grilled Cheese Rollups

Cook Time: 10 minutes

Servings: 2

From Kosher.com

Recipe by Mindee Skurowitz

Ingredients:

4 slices white bread, crusts removed

4 slices cheese or vegan cheese

2 tablespoons Gefen Mayonnaise

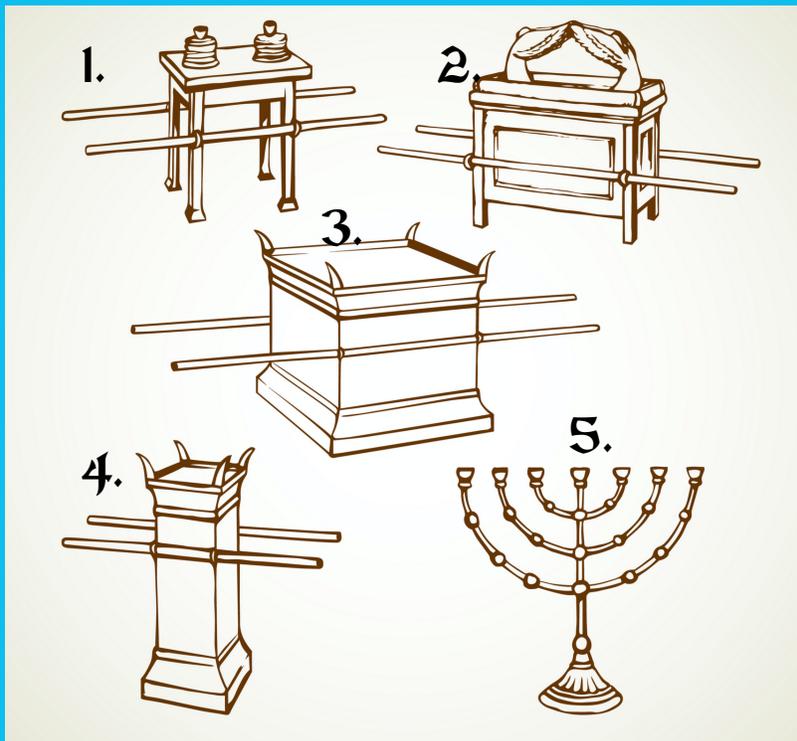

3 tablespoons oil or butter for frying

1/2 teaspoon dried parsley Tuscanini Marinara Sauce, for serving

1. Slice the crust off of any bread of your choice and flatter out the bread with a pin roller.
2. Place any cheese that you prefer on top of the rolled out bread.
3. Roll up the bread tightly and add a toothpick to keep it in place. Coat the rolled up bread in mayo and dried parsley flakes.
4. Once the oil or butter is heated up in the pan, place the grilled cheese roll into it with the opening facing down. That way it is sealed up and you won't need the toothpick anymore.
5. Serve hot with marinara sauce for dipping! Absolute perfection.
